

statement & am afraid to repeat the experiment. Papa does not feel quite well, I think it is the heat. I have persuaded him, as there is very little business, to close earlier than two days for all their sakes. Mamma makes no fuss. Bertha looked so like a corpse yesterday that I started her off early in the morning & told her to stay away all day, so she went to the Fair after her shopping was done, & came home looking better.
I think I stand it better than the rest.
I suffer more from the fussing of the rest than anything else. The Capt. ^{workaway} at the Jofano chiefless takes delight in it.
Minnie Hinckley is at Uncle Phil's from Dyer's & the Lamberts are in the City, so I look for them any time. I can't think of anything else, only to tell you I feel a good deal & don't get comfortable as I must be.

Lasse is badly settled, & I am thinking of sweeping a horse's sponge at the back of my neck for a while or so. Watermelon I need a fast supper tonight. Bertha is going to take a less wage & I am going to help her. I am going to wash every night. I am pale as a B. will be a good deal. When she feels the wash in her throat, which is a sign of redness, but she is very patient or good. I like her better all the time Glad to hear of her. I am fond of you to every body. inducible on the train. We are leaving about 9 o'clock and feel free that the longest day was nearly a month ago, the misture became kinder and soon the rain. The several hours the first yesterday because the time it must be very hot if not you are but I get mind off your suffering by imagining that it was probably better in the light of day after. What time, I don't know nothing for the long of a dear, I can do nothing for her. I have to say her to the me give her a warm bath thinking she would be so after it, but it was no go. I has some new steam from the -doubtful, with the greatly engaged, despoiling it more agreed with her, but the has nothing more so I doubt the Miss Grace Hall.

C/o Mr. B. T. Bailey.
Charles City.
Floyd Co.
Iowa.

